

General Criteria

Nominees must exemplify the highest standard of ethical conduct, moral character, selflessness, and be highly regarded by their peers.

There are three categories of Legends: Individual, Posthumous, and Business. The categories are for judging purposes only and once inducted, the winners are not categorized, but will be recognized as a Legend of Lahainaluna. There may be more than one winner for each category each year.

All nominees will be considered on their significant contributions to the school, or in the case of Individuals and Posthumous categories, contributions to their respective communities after graduating Lahainaluna will be considered.

Nominations are valid in the year that they are brought forth, there is no carry over.
